PART I—Section 1*Notifications relating to Non-Statutory Rules, Regulations and Orders and Resolutions issued by the Ministries of the Government of India (other than the Ministry of Defence) and by the Supreme Court*PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIATNew Delhi, the 27th August 1960*

No. 49-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Orissa Police:—

Name of the officer and rank.

Shri Biswanath Das, Police Constable, Puri District, Orissa.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

In November 1959, Constable Biswanath Das accompanied the Officer-in-charge of Sarankul Police Station, Puri District, to village Katarajhori for the investigation of a case. On the evening of the 26th November, the Officer-in-charge was returning on foot from the village with 11 accused persons in the case in custody along with the complainant in the case, Shri Binayak Mohapatra, and a few other persons. Constable Biswanath Das followed behind the party wheeling his bicycle. When the party came near a hillock on the roadside, Sanatan Mohapatra, the principal accused in the case and a notoriously bad character, armed with a naked sword, suddenly emerged from a mango tree at the foot of the hillock where he had been lying in wait and dealt Constable Biswanath Das two successive blows with obvious intent to kill him and rescue the accused in custody. The first blow fell on Constable Biswanath Das's shoulder and the second sliced his chin and left hand as he struggled to wrest the sword from his attacker, whom he managed to evade in the gathering darkness. Sanatan Mohapatra then turned on the complainant Shri Binayak Mohapatra. Seeing him in danger Constable Biswanath Das, undaunted by the injuries he had already sustained, went to his rescue and confronted his attacker who slashed at his head with the sword. Fortunately the heavy folds of the puggree worn by Constable Biswanath Das saved him from serious injury. His attacker then struck again, the blow however falling on the carrier of the cycle, but with yet another blow he inflicted injuries on Constable Biswanath Das's right forearm and leg. Despite this, Constable Biswanath Das bravely continued to grapple with the accused and was able finally to disarm him with the help of the Officer-in-charge, who also received minor injuries.

In this incident, Constable Biswanath Das showed a fearless disregard for his own safety and devotion to duty of a high order.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(l) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.
